Young Global Scholars Program

The Yale Young Global Scholars Program (YYGS) is an intense academic summer program designed to provide talented high school students with interdisciplinary insight, global awareness, and critical skills for becoming leaders inside and outside the classroom. Students spend two weeks on Yale's campus in New Haven, Connecticut getting an authentic taste of life at Yale with their classmates from around the world.

Throughout the program, students will have direct access to renowned Yale faculty and current Yale undergraduate and graduate students from across the University.

In YYGS students will:

- Improve analytical thinking, intellectual flexibility, written and oral communication
- Engage productively with a diverse group of like-minded peers
- Participate in lively small group discussions on a range of contemporary issues
- Develop key skills to better position themselves as global leaders

Current high school sophomores and juniors are eligible.

“I encourage everyone with intellectual curiosity, academic drive, an open mind, and a wish to change the world to apply to YYGS.” - 2016 alumnus

YYGS is offering six unique pre-collegiate experiences in 2017:

Frontiers of Math & Science (FMS): June 19 – July 2
Sustainable Development & Social Entrepreneurship (SDSE): June 19 – July 2

Applied Science & Engineering (ASE): July 9 – July 22
International Affairs & Security (IAS): July 9 – July 22

Biological & Biomedical Science (BBS): July 27 - August 9
Politics, Law, & Economics (PLE): July 27 - August 9

All six sessions give high school student leaders opportunities to recognize and understand contemporary global issues, strategize responses, and innovate solutions while learning from renowned practitioners and Yale faculty members in a range of fields.

The rigorous schedule includes daily lectures by Yale faculty, smaller seminars taught by Yale undergraduate and graduate students, and residential life meetings. Students are required to complete a writing, research, and presentation project that includes a teamwork component.
